SAD DEATH OF JUDGE KELLY.

We regret to announce the death, under painful circumstances, of Judge Kelly, American judge in the Mixed Court of Appeal, who had resided in Egypt for twenty years.

The accident by which he met his death is thus reported in the "New York Herald" (Paris) of January 29: "A well-dressed man, appearing to be about sixty years of age, was knocked down by a delivery van on the Place de la Concorde yesterday. He was taken to the Beaujon Hospital, where he died in the evening. In his pocketbook was found a card with the address, 'Judge Kelly, 49, Dover-street, 'Hoodville, London.'"

The late judge was appointed to the Court of Appeal in 1881, and was promoted to the Court of Appeal some years afterwards. Both before and after his death he had a large circle of friends in Egypt, for they were most genial and hospitable. Judge Kelly left two sons and a daughter. The latter is married to Captain Hall, of the Irish Rifles.

BANKING IN EGYPT.

The Comptoir National d'Escompte de Paris expects to have its Alexandria branch opened for working by next June.

The Bank of Egypt's new branch at Alexandria will open here in about two months' time.

The Credit Italiano is considering the advisability of establishing a branch here, but has come to no definite decision on the matter as yet.

The new German-Greek-Orient Bank is established in Egypt, but its operations first headquarters will be at Athens and Constantinople.

Our Constantinople Correspondent sends us the following details on this new Levantine bank: "The Greek bank of the National Bank will be at the disposal of the Orient Bank, so it will not be necessary to open new branches in that country. But in proportion with the development of business, the Orient Bank will establish branches in various parts of Turkey, Egypt, and other countries in the East. With regard to the capital, the National Bank is authorized, and in fact, the National Bank of Greece have taken all the shares, the value of which is 10 million francs. They have reserved to themselves the right to take up to 50 per cent. of the shares within three years."

M. Wittling, manager of the National Bank for Deutschland and one of those interested in the Orient Bank, has stated, in an interview, that the aim of the new financial institution is to facilitate the importation of German goods into Egypt. M. Wittling also said that the Orient Bank would establish in Greece storehouses for wares which the proprietor does not wish to export immediately and which the Orient Bank will also advance money. The Bank will endeavour to come to an understanding with the Deutsche-Levante Bank to facilitate the export trade.

NOTES FROM SUZ.

THE MARQUIS DI RUFINI'S VISIT.

The Marquis di Rufini, ex-Prime Minister of Italy, arrived at Suze this afternoon by the 4.30 train from Cairo en route to Massouah. At the station he was met by Mr. Luigi Deperis, Italian Vice-Consul at Suze. Mr. Aug. Pacho, and other members of the Florio community. Shortly afterwards, the Florio-Bahia steam launch, owned by the Marquis, arrived on board the steamer "Toba," which sailed in the evening for Massouah.

COLLISION IN THE CANAL.

The British steamer "Gorkha" collided in the Canal last Saturday afternoon, near Shafat station, with the S.S. "Soko," which was moored at the time. Both steamers sustained some damage over the water line.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY AT SUZ.

It is expected that Egypt's wireless telegraph station at Port Tadmud will be completed by the end of March, when Suze will be in communication with steamers in the Red Sea having wireless apparatus on board, as well as with Port Said.

PILGRIM STEAMER ASHORE.

The Greek steamer "Kilikia," bound to Jeddah with a large number of Oriental pilgrims, was wrecked in the Canal in the Small Bitter Lake, and was refloated yesterday with the assistance of a Canal Company's tug. The "Kilikia" sustained no damage whatever, and proceeded on her journey.

THE LAST OF THE PILGRIMS.

The Khedivial Mail Line, with a view to clearing out the remaining foreign pilgrims at Suze, who had not managed to proceed on their journey, sent the "Mennahel" to Suze. The vessel sailed for Jeddah yesterday afternoon, after taking on board 600 pilgrims at a very low rate, and 800, who were not in a position to pay, were carried absolutely free of charge. The last pilgrims are on their way to the Holy City via Suze.

DEVELOPMENT OF FARSHUT.

Our Farshut Correspondent states that the Postmaster-General has decided to open a branch of the post-office savings bank at Farshut in consequence of the petition of the inhabitants, which he voiced in our columns. The inhabitants are delighted with the prospect of the savings bank, and are looking forward to its opening with interest.

The employees of the Corporation of Western Egypt are still hoping that the Railway Administration will grant their request and stop the "train de luxe" at Farshut station.

HELOUAN RAILWAY.

Since the Delta Light Railway Company has taken over the Helouan line, great satisfaction has been evinced at the reforms that the company has introduced. We extract the following passage from our vernacular contemporary "Miser":

We are requested by several people inhabiting Helouan to express their warmest thanks for the many and various reforms brought about by the Delta Company on the line which before long they expect to become one of the most orderly and the least dangerous of lines in Egypt. The reason that some are conducting a virulent campaign against the company, despite its recent existence, is due to the mere fact that they are not willing to surrender money in the same way as the former company with the intention of procuring the right to their crying and manifold defects. The object of the new company is reforms in the full sense of the word, and no bawling or nonsense whatever on the part of ill-intentioned people is to deter them from attaining this most commendable object.
