SENSATION IN GERMANY.

Losdon, February 6.

Mr. Lees' speech, mentioned in yesterday's telegram, has can-ed a sensation in Germany. The paper are angrily demanding an explanation. Some of them declare that Germany will now work with redoubled energy in order to increase her say lower.

and so we with redoubled energy in some or who have a power.

Mr. Lees now writes that he yans incorrectly reported, and that what he said was that we must assume all naval powers to be possible enemies. Owing to the growth of such naval powers, our possible enemies are more numerous than interfact, and, coinsequently, we have to keep an auxious eye not only on the Mediterranean but also on the North Ses.

The "Chaudant" for the North Ses.

The "Chaudant" is not such a power of the North Ses. The "Chaudant" is not such as the power of the North Ses. The "Chaudant" is not such as the seed, because we promptly reputates the speech, termany will ask for an explains the speech, termany will ask for an explains the seed.

A CASE FOR ENQUIRY.

A Cairo correspondent writes:—To the west of Abdeen-square is a nasty quarter where few sanitary and moral laws are enforced and where the gressest criminality prevails. While in that locality to-day (Priday) I learned that a a quartel between an Armenian was obtained with the safet a week or more, died, and nothing has been done to the assainates or murderers. In fact, the principal was pointed out to me, and I was informed that as expeasant of police was bribed to strike this man's name off the quartel. I wish this matter to be inquired into, for it is a most gross outrage if it is true, as I am led to believe it is. A Cairo correspondent writes :- To the

PROF FELIX'S RECITAL

Professor Pélix's concert took place at the Kheiivial Hotel on Saturday night as ancouncel, and considering the wet and tempestuots weather, was well attended. We must construint the professor on his courage in fixing a more modest price for the tickets than is customary here for local artistes, who expect their kind friends to pay the same price for the pleasure of hearing them perform as they would do for distinguished artistes from Europe who can command audiences without the disagreeable touting system in vogneithis country. Mr. Pélix's selection of piece was as it ought to have been, a happy one, as his silvery touch was shown off to perfection
