to be going on behind the scenes. Ought the Manifephity to swallow this accusation without saying a wont! Surely used a policy must leave a very hasty impression on the public, mind. Either Mr. Alderson's accusation is true or false, and he would not have dated to make, it is a newspaper-unless he had good evidence to go upon. The only conclusion that I can come to is that the Maniephity must be held to be guilty of the grave irregularities imputed to it by Mr. Alderson, unless it publicy and clearly proves that his statements are false or exaggerate. — I am.
